Good overview of communication in counseling

By Connie Hyltin

Required by my instructor. Good overview of communication in counseling.

A definite must-read for all communication fans

By Dante Lebowski

I would start my review off with the word "WOW," but that would be far too much of an understatement. If you could multiply "WOW" by 100 times, that may begin to describe the sheer brilliance that is to be found within the pages. This book, quite simply put, was 176 pages of pure, unadulterated psychologically thrilling genius. The author clearly has an encyclopedic understanding of the subject matter. This text should be THE reference guide for anyone who desires to acquire active listening and communication skills. This is probably my third favorite book after War and Peace and The Zombie Survival Guide. Two enthusiastic thumbs up!
