Excellent reader for intermediate level learners in German

By Brunnhilde

Excellent reader for intermediate level learners in German! The short stories are readable, relatable, interesting, and entertaining: what it's like to eat in "the dark restaurant", surfing in Munich, the history of the Oktoberfest, the concept of "Multikulti", and FKK" (Freikörperkultur). Educational while also fun and engaging for students.

Separate vocabulary lists are provided for each story, which makes it unlikely students will need a dictionary to read the texts. There is a variety of exercises (fill in the blank, matching, true or false, and open ended questions), which deepens the understanding of content and at the same time integrates grammar review. Bravo!
