One helluva trip of a story. A great debut novel, probably, hopefully more to come.writers like Kersi positively will write more

I saw the movie first. Forgot about it. Then read the book. It brought back not just the movie, but a lot more. As a part time Goan, for me it was like being in the car with the five characters and the dead cat. This book is a lark, and a great read.

Great novel from Kersi Khambatta who uses a very original descriptive style to bring his characters to life and weave their larger to life personalities. Makes for some really great and imaginative reading.
